Mystic Valley Elder Services Employee Spotlight Award Winner

(Malden, MA)— The Mystic Valley Elder Services Employee Spotlight Award winner for the first quarter of 2019 is Saugus resident Beverly Oriolo-Tabb, administrative assistant, who's been with the agency for nearly 6 years.

Beverly's nominator had this to say about her:

"Beverly has always been the go to person for supplies and anything else you may need. If she does not have it she makes sure you do in a couple of days. She always take the time to help you find exactly what you need or sometimes she will find you something that works better. I appreciate all Beverly does to help me get my work done quicker and efficiently."

The spotlight award is given to a Mystic Valley Elder Services employee who has gone above and beyond typical job expectations, provided outstanding customer service, or performed distinctive achievements that impact their department and agency.

Congratulations Beverly!
