Mystic Valley Elder Services Receives Donation of Socks
From Bombas to Help Consumers in Need

Malden residents happy to get pairs of socks

(Malden, MA) - Bombas, a national sock manufacturer, recently donated 1,000 pairs of socks to Mystic Valley Elder Services (MVES) to provide to the agency's in-need individuals. Bombas is a comfort focused sock and apparel brand with a mission to help those in need. One pair purchased = one pair donated. Literally hundreds of low income people will benefit from Bombas generosity with socks being distributed by MVES care managers as well as through MVES philanthropic partnerships with the North Suburban WIC Program / MelroseWakefield Health's Mobile Food Market and The Bread of Life. The company has donated more than 43 million clothing items including socks.
